BROOKLYN HANDICAP FAVORITES.

The favorite with Plaudit in the Brooklyn Handicap early betting is Eastin & Larrabee's Ben Holladay, named after a Westerner, associated with the early tribulations and triumphs of the western land, where his owners live. Ben Holladay is probably the best horse and is favorite with only 1 to 3 laid against his chances, while it was 3 to 1 against Plaudit. The other starters were Isabay and Han d'Or. Lieber Karl carried 122 pounds, Plaudit 117. T. Burns was on the former and Simms on the latter. At the end of a desperate and thrilling drive through the whole of the last quarter-mile Plaudit won by a neck from Lieber Karl, certainly one of the best horses in training in America today. He is by Hanover—Mollie L., by Longfellow and from 1 1-2 miles up has proven his great quality. Over a shorter distance of ground Ben Holladay has been less than certain.

BEN HOLLADAY, B. H, 6, BY HANOVER—MOLLIE L., BY LONGFELLOW.

He was second, with 121 pounds up, to Ornament (127), in the Brooklyn Handicap last year, the 1 1-4 miles in 2:10. He was one and a half lengths behind at the end.

At Coney Island, June 23, he won from Damien, 109, and five others at 1 1-2 miles, with 128 pounds up in 2:01 1/2 and over the same course, August 29, landed the Turf Handicap at 1 1-4 miles on the turf under 127 pounds, in 2:10; Thomas Cat (103), Jefferson (90) and Semper Ego (113), were behind him.

Then at Morris Park, October 4, he won the Morris Park Special, 2 miles, 130 pounds, in 3:33, beating George Keene (117), Warrenton (117), Algol (130) and Latson (117); October 15, the Municipal Handicap, 1 1-4 miles, 130 pounds, in 3:01, beating Jefferson (87), Thomas Cat (98), Handball (114) and five others, and October 22, the Morris Park Handicap, 2 1-4 miles, 138 pounds, in 4:07, defeating a rather poor lot.

But Ben Holladay, with 123 pounds, was fifth in the Suburban, one and a quarter miles, of 1898, finishing behind Tillo (119), Semper Ego (106), Ogden (109), and Don d'Oro (115), and at Coney Island, September 5, finished last with 122 pounds to The Friar (125), Mirthful (111), Buella (98), and White Frost (111) in the Twin City Handicap.

In Ben Holladay's four years' of racing he has performed as follows:

Year	Age	Races	1st	2nd	3rd	Unp.	Amt.	Won 1895	2	12	4	3	3	2	$1,765
1896	3	18	3	8	6	1	3,650
1897	4	13	4	5	2	2	8,235
1898	5	9	5	1	..	3	12,185
Total (4)	.52	16	17	11	8		$25,835

Plaudit, a brown colt by Himyar—Cinderella now a 4-year-old, made his first start in the year 1898 in the Kentucky Derby at Louisville. Lieber Karl went to the post an overwhelming Isabay twenty lengths away, being third. This was on the fourth day of May. Time, 2:09.

Seven days later the Clark Stakes was run, only Plaudit and Lieber Karl contesting the event. Lieber Karl was again a favorite, it being only 7 to 20 against him at the post while it was 11 to 5 against Plaudit. The reason for this was that Plaudit carried 127 pounds, ten more than in the Derby, while Lieber Karl carried the same weight he had carried before. Considering the closeness of the finish for the Derby it appeared that at the weights Lieber Karl should win. But to the consternation of the admirers of Mr. Schorr's good colt, Plaudit won at his leisure by a good four lengths and could evidently have made it a good many lengths more. Time for the mile and a furlong, 1:56 1/4.

From Louisville the two good colts were taken to Cincinnati where they met again in the Oakley Derby, no others starting. Plaudit carried 127 pounds, Lieber Karl 125. Lieber Karl led on suzerance to the turn for the stretch where Plaudit took a slight lead and with his jockey sitting still won, hard held, by three-quarters of a length, the time for the mile and a quarter being 2:08 1/4. That was enough for Mr. Schorr and Lieber Karl. Plaudit's superiority was too manifest and they withdrew from the unequal struggle leaving Plaudit to walkover unchallenged for the Buckeye Stakes a few days later.

Plaudit had now won four straight victories. His after career for the year was four consecutive seconds. At Latonia, June 9, he ran second to Han d'Or for the Derby. It was an extraordinary race and Plaudit was by no means disgraced. It was run in 2:32 1/4, Han d'Or winning by three lengths, Plaudit carried 127 pounds to his 114. Though Plaudit ran fairly well afterwards it is questionable whether he ever recovered fully from the effects of this desperate race. June 18 he ran second to Pink Coat for the St. Louis Derby. He carried 127 pounds to Pink Coat's 107; Bannockburn, 107, Jackanapes, 109 and Equitome, 94, finishing behind him. Time of the race 2:37. His next start was for the Realization Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, where he ran second to the peerless Hamburg, George Boyd being third and The Huguenot, Handball and Latson unplaced. His last start of the year was at Saratoga August 2, where George Keene beat him a half length for the Hamburg Stakes at a mile over a very heavy track. He was so plainly out of form that he was retired for the season in the hope that a long rest would bring back the speed that he had possessed through his early western campaign. Here are his tabulated performances as a two-year-old and a three-year-old:

1897	2	12	4	1	0	7	$3,845
1898	3	8	4	4	0	0	24,710
Totals (2)	20	8	5	0	7		$33,045

ED. CORRIGAN'S GOOD DAY.

Describing the racing at Ingleside last Thursday W. W. Naughton says in the San Francisco Examiner:

"It is whispered in turf circles that Ed Corrigan will shortly publish a small handbook entitled 'Every Owner His Own Trainer.' It may be that the rumor is simply in the nature of a pleasantry, but the fact remains that since the Master of Ingleside began getting up early in the morning his nags have captured a sufficiency of purses to pay the oats bill and leave a little something with which to play the next race.

"Yesterday's results, for instance, bear testimony to Corrigan's skill as a conditioner, showing as they do that his horses are 'right on edge.'"

"To begin with, Credo carried the green and white to victory in the first race, and Ferrier followed with a 'win' in the second. Ferrier, of course, is the property of millionaire Hobart, but he is stabled and handled by Corrigan.

"Next in order was Adolph Spreckels, the easy winner of the third event at a mile and a sixteenth. In the improvised fourth race the Corrigan entry, The Bachelor, didn't do quite so well. There were extenuating circumstances, however, the principal one being that he was ridden like a horse that was meant to land second. And that is just where he did land.

"Owner Corrigan had nothing starting in the fifth, but in the sixth Maxello sported the green and brought it home in advance of all the other colors, thus making four firsts and a second for the stable.

"The race in which The Bachelor ran second was won by Lodestar, the solidly supported second choice. The Bachelor was prominent for a brief instant when the gate went skyward, and the next that was seen of him he was chasing the others up the backstretch. Once past the half, 'Skeets' Martin sent him along a bit and was second to Lodestar shortly after turning for home. He gained somewhat on the Midlothian gelding before the wire was reached, but, as already stated, he did not win.

"Old Buckwa placed the seven furlong handicap to his credit, and did it in easy style.
Highland Ball was second, and it must be said that he ran a remarkable race. He was according as wretched a start as it is possible for an animal to get in a four-horse race, but he went in pursuit of his field and outran Hohenzollern and Libertine before the stretch was reached.

"While Maxello was at all times a favorite for the concluding six furlongs there was a heavy investment in Mercutio stock. From 12 to 1 the horse named rapidly dropped to 5 to 1.
Then his price began to climb again, until at gate time it was 8 to 1. Mercutio carried a barrel of money at that, and there were some heartrending groans when a man with field glasses yelled: 'Mercutio is left at the post.'"

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Though the new seven-furlong straight track will be completed at Sheephead Bay, so far as laying it out and forming it is concerned, it will not be used until 1900. In a talk with one of the officials he said that there would not be a chance to use it this season, as it takes a long time to put a new track into shape, even after it is made, owing to the great number of stones and pieces of rock that have to be removed, which has to be done by hand. Every time a harrow is put over a track there, it brings stones to the surface, and it takes time to clean it and make it perfect. For this reason it is not deemed advisable to give the track a trial, until it is clean and well set.

The Thornton Stakes, four miles, will be run at Oakland February 22. It is of the value of $3,000 and it seems probable that it will be contested by a strong field. Good day and track the long standing record for a race at the distance, Fellowcraft's 7:19½, may be eclipsed. The event closed for supplementary entries last week. So far as can now be told the most probable starters are Buckwa, David Tenny, Wheel of Fortune, Adolph Spreckels, The Bachelor, Tempo and Mistletoe. Without any other starters this would be a very strong field for a race at such a distance. All are stayers and fast. At Great Falls, Mont., September 20, last, Tempo beat Scottish Chieftain and O'tler Joe a mile and a quarter in 2:06½. The more recent performances of the other horses named are familiar to all turfmen who follow the performances of the horses closely.

T. C. McDowell has bought of Milton Young a half interest in the 2-year-old chestnut colts Star Bright, by Aintree—Spaldimore, and Robert Metcalfe, by Harry O'Fallon—Zizi. They cost Young $2,550 last fall and are considered very promising youngsters, both having shown remarkably fast trials which induced Young to buy them. So far as can be estimated without the test of actual racing Robert Metcalfe is the best of the pair. Of the two colts the Thoroughbred Record says: "Both are highly tried, Robert Metcalfe having shown a faster on T. H.
Steven's farm track than any yearling ever trained there. In light of the fact that Buckwa, Wary and Florimere got their first work on that track, the work entitles him to a claim of more than ordinary worth. Star Bright worked three-eighths with light weight last fall in 38½ over the hill at Lexington, where 37 with weight up, is considered very good."

The case of young W. Shields, who was ruled off recently by the stewards of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, has been taken up again for further investigation. He was accused of having paid money to have his father's horse, Lord Chesterfield, pulled and found guilty. New Alec Shields, the father of the young trainer, has demanded a more complete investigation.
He says his son told a number of his friends to bet on Lord Chesterfield, and that several horsemen are ready to prove what he claims to be the facts in the case. Other things have come to the surface to throw doubt on the evidence on which the stewards acted. In the light of his last race it seems clear, however, that Lord Chesterfield was certainly pulled in the race that made the trouble, no matter who caused it to be done.

A prominent firm of racing men and breeders in California are negotiating with a newspaper man there who has a commission to sell the Australian stallion Tarcoola, and it is expected that the sale will be consummated within the next few days. Tarcoola won the Melbourne Cup, Williamstown Cup and other great races, in all about $80,000 in stakes and purses, and if brought to this country will be the first winner of the Melbourne Cup ever landed on American soil. He is by Newminster (who headed the Australian "winning stallions" list for three years) from Imogene, by King of the Ring, a grandson of Stockwell, as was Newminster.
Tarcoola is now ten years old and would probably be a valuable acquisition.

"I feel very proud of the two-year-olds I have bred," said Ed Corrigan, "and I think I have the record. If memory serves me, there have been ten different winning two-year-olds in California thus far this season, and of this number I bred no less than six, including St. Anthony, Jennie Riley, Loch Katrine, Innovator (two races) and Golden Rule. Yellow Tail has won two races, Ella Boland two, L. mond one and Nina one. I believe one of the youngsters I bred won at New Orleans, too." Mr. Corrigan will breed fifteen mares this year to the great New Zealand-bred horse, Artillery, son of Musket.—San Francisco Examiner.

His Lordship, the son of R. you d'Or—Sallie McClelland, will not start in the Tennessee Derby. "The conditions," says trainer Smith, "are for colts to carry 122 and fillies 117. Not getting any maiden allowances, but having to carry even weights with the same colts that he will, with a big pull in the weights, meet later in Derbys, it would be injudicious to try to get him ready for so early an event. If he does well, I will start him in the Kentucky Derby and then go on with the remainder of his engagements.
All my horses will go to Louisville within the next month."—The Thoroughbred Record.

Isaac Block of this city is credited with having bought from Welsh & Co of Nicholasville, Ky., the 3-year-old chestnut colt, Mazo, by Rosington—Rena B., for the sum of $2,000. Though he was apparently out of form toward the close of the racing season Mazo won some very good last year, including the Juvenile Stakes at Louisville and the Harold Stakes at Latonia.

His best performance was in the Harold Stakes, in which, carrying 121 pounds, he defeated Billy House, Judge Tarvin and The Barrister.

The San Francisco Examiner of last Wednesday says: "Eppinger, G. W. Scott's good-looking bay colt, by Morelle—Orinda, threw his shoulder out while at exercise at Ingleside yesterday, and, running on, broke the shoulder, though he did not fall. He was taken to a veterinarian's in the city in an ambulance and it is thought he will be saved."

Fred Foster's recent purchase, Sam McKeever, is a sick horse over at the Oakland track. He is suffering from lung fever, but Foster has hopes of saving his valuable horseflesh.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The stewards of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club have modified their decree of thirty days' suspension of Nick Hall's jockey, McNichol, to the extent of allowing him to ride for his employer.

Time, 1:14, 24, 36t.

Winner—Ch. f. by Bassettlaw—Sardonyx.
Start good. Won easily up. Sardine was decidedly the best and is a good two-year-old with a high turn of speed. Muntebank ran well and finished like a good one. Tarhill was evidently green and is very promising. Bamboulia showed speed to the stretch and quit, more from bad riding than from lack of ability to go on. Tanobe is common.

Scratched—10565 Pidalia, 110.

Corrected weights—Sardine, 115.

Muntebank, place, evens. Tarhill, show, 6 to 5. Bamboulia, place, 4 to 5.

Time, 25, 50t, 1:15, 1:42.

Winner—Ch. f. by Great Tom—Endurance.
Start fair. Won very easily. Stamina is a much improved colt. He was off well, always in a good place and easily held the others safe. Merops closed a big gap rounding the far turn and finished strongly. Racivan shows improvement and ran a good consistent race. Ballista apparently sulked and would not extend himself. He is bad tempered but a good colt. His race should be thrown out. Milt Young ran a bad race. Strongoli is a sprinter. The route was too long and he was unlucky.

Stamina, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Merops, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Racivan, show, 3 to 1.

Time, 24, 50, 1:15, 1:28t.

Winner—B. h. by Cavalier—Spindler.
Start good. Won handily. Mild drive for the place. Joe Mussel, as he raced to-day, was far above his form mark. He was badly ridden, too. Cavallo was handled even worse, and ran a good race. Wyoming is best in mud and good, but a coward. Watch. Outaway ran an improving sort of a race. Cabrillo is rounding to. He had speed. Is an acrobat at best. Tab Merry Boy. He can do better.

Scratched—(10579)Credo, 109; 10618 Two Cheers 112; 10555 Schpitz, 115.

Joe Mussel, place, 10 to 1; show, 5 to 1. Cavallo, place, 6 to 1; show, 24 to 1. Cabrillo, place, 4 to 5.

Time, 24, 50, 1:15, 1:28t.

Winner—Ch. h. by Falsetto—Cinderella.
Start fair. Won easily. Drive for place. Ferrier outclassed the field in his present good form and took command as soon as given his head. Joe Ullman showed fine speed rounding the far turn and ran a good race. Guildler closed a big gap on the backstretch and finished stoutly. It was a bit too far to suit Orion. A sprinting route suits him and he is good in mud. Imperious was unlucky but did not run his true race. Highland Ball ran an honest race. Bonnie Ione was out of her class. She is good.

Scratched—10580 Don't Skip Me, 104; 10556 Judge Stonffer, 106; (10594) Tammany Hall II, 109. Ferrier, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Joe Ullman, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Guildler, show, 7 to 5.

Start good. Won very easily. Little action behind. Rey del Tierra won as he chose. Is in rare form and outclassed the field. Topmast ran an honest race and closed resolutely. Espionage was less than well ridden. She is good. Watch. Morinel is not at her best and ran a poor race.

Winner—B. c. by Himyar—Aileen Aroon.
Start bad. Won in a canter. Allyar was away with a flying start and none of the others could ever get near him. Ed Gartland II had no trouble in outrunning Sombre down the home stretch. Sombre ran her race. She stops easily when challenged. Lime Water was unlucky in the send-off and closed a big gap running very fast through the last quarter.
